

LARRY WEAVER

Clean Southern Comedy

Since 1991, comedian Larry Weaver has delighted audiences across America with a mix of down-home tales and clean, original comedy.

Larry's Southern charm and humor come honestly. He grew up in the tiny mill village of Saxapahaw, NC (look closely, it's on the map), and started performing at a young age.

After majoring in accounting at the University of North Carolina, Larry left his CPA dreams behind to tour across America as a stand-up comedian.

Larry comes armed with a wealth of experience from performing over 1,000 shows in 36 states. Along the way, he has shared the stage with Faith Hill, Ray Romano, "Weird Al" Yankovic and Chris Rock — just to name a few.

Larry's most recent CD, "Looking for Fun", has enjoyed heavy airplay on Sirius/XM Blue Collar Radio. The album contains "Ghost in the Trailer," a hilarious tale about a family terrorized by a redneck ghost.

In his live show, Larry riffs on growing up in the South, eating healthy, popular culture, and household insects. He also loves to joke about computers, working in an office environment, annoying coworkers, Facebook, Google, office parties, and more.

Larry's one-of-a-kind collection of life experiences have molded his fresh, offbeat, and funny perspective.

"Terrific performance! Would recommend to any organization. Clean, appropriate, and funny. He had everyone laughing. We hope to have Larry entertain us again!"

– Breen Smith, President, New Hope Natural Gas

"Great show! Good clean southern comedy. I have had so much positive feedback from the audience. We loved it!"

– Owanna Victory, Board Member, Marshville Chamber of Commerce

"Larry was spot on with his show. He asked about our company beforehand and incorporated funny stories about our employees into his show. A true professional!"

– Gabi Jacob, Corporate Network Services

"Larry is a great comedian. Many, many comments and thanks were given to the HR Department for providing such a great program."

– Teresa Bell, VP of Human Resources, ACS Benefit Service
