

INTRODUCTION

We have a very special guest tonight. He's a professional touring comedian that has performed at comedy clubs, colleges and corporate events across the United States.

He is a comedian, singer/songwriter, musician, and actor who has appeared on many television shows including The X Files, Days of Our Lives, Comedy Central's Make Me Laugh, and Matlock.

He has performed in some of the country's top comedy clubs such as the World Famous Comedy Store in Hollywood.

Let's give a big round of applause for Matt Jernigan!

Tips for a Great Introduction:

A proper introduction is crucial to a successful performance. The introduction builds excitement and sets the tone for the entire performance. This is an important task.

You or someone from your organization needs to introduce the comedian or speaker. If you don't feel up for the task, feel free to delegate this responsibility. Just make sure the person you select follows these important rules:

- Read over the introduction beforehand and practice reciting it aloud. Ask the performer about the correct pronunciation of their name.
- If you have a buffet or bar, the introduction is not the time to announce last call for food and drinks. Make that announcement at least 5–10 minutes before showtime (adjust timing based on crowd size).
- When you approach the microphone, give everyone a few minutes to settle down. Ask the audience to turn off all cell phones ringers and keep chatter to a minimum.
- Don't worry about being funny. The comedian will handle that.
- Be energetic! You're excited about the entertainment, right? Build the anticipation by showing genuine enthusiasm during your intro.
