

MICHAEL CREECH

Stage and Strolling Magic

Magician Michael Creech consistently delivers the finest in family-friendly entertainment. With nearly 20 years of performing experience, Michael's showmanship and diversity of close miracles to breathtaking stage magic has made him a popular repeat act.

Strolling Magic

Amaze your guests as they watch the impossible happen only inches from their eyes. Michael captivates individual groups with his up-close miracles. The magic includes visual effects with coins, cards, ropes and more. Michael will seemingly reveal the thoughts of a spectator, cause someone's signature to appear on something they did not sign, and even make objects materialize in the hands of an audience member.

Close-up magic is ideal for warming up a crowd before a show, or for entertaining mingling guests at a cocktail hour or trade show. This type of magic can be booked by itself or as an addition to Michael's show. People love close-up magic because it takes place right before their eyes, and sometimes even in their own hands!
