

Introduction – Lyndy Phillips

We tried to find a PhD, but instead found a P.D.H. – Post Dinner Humorist. Our guest uses clean humor, comedy magic, and inspiration to make people happier, healthier, and less stressed.

In 1980, Lyndy began entertaining audiences where he learned the power of laughter.

In 1988, he entered full-time ministry where he learned the power of inspiration.

That same year, he combined the two and began entertaining and inspiring groups across the country as a full-time Inspirational Speaker, Humorist, and Entertainer. And he's here [today/tonight] to remind us to Laugh More. Stress Less.

From Dallas/Fort Worth, Texas, please welcome with a BIG round of applause,

Lyndy Phillips!

Tips for a Great Introduction:

A proper introduction is crucial to a successful performance. The introduction builds excitement and sets the tone for the entire performance. This is an important task.

You or someone from your organization needs to introduce the entertainer or speaker. If you don't feel up for the task, feel free to delegate this responsibility. Just make sure the person you select follows these important rules:

- Read over the introduction beforehand and practice reciting it aloud. Ask the performer about the correct pronunciation of their name.
- If you have a buffet or bar, the introduction is not the time to announce last call for food and drinks. Make that announcement at least 5–10 minutes before showtime (adjust timing based on crowd size).
- When you approach the microphone, give everyone a few minutes to settle down. Wait as long as needed for everyone to be seated and to quiet down.
- Don't worry about being funny. The entertainer will handle that.
- Be energetic! You're excited about the entertainment, right? Build the anticipation by showing genuine enthusiasm during your intro.

Excerpted from the book “How to Hire Comedians” by Larry Weaver.

Get your FREE copy at www.larryweaver.com/comedians

