

Larry Weaver Introduction

It is my pleasure to introduce our very special guest. He's an Internationally-touring keynote speaker and stand-up comedian.

He has spoken to audience members from around the World at corporate events and conferences, and has shared the stage with entertainment legends like Faith Hill, Chris Rock and "Weird Al" Yankovic*.

He's here to make us laugh and share his unique insights on positivity, resilience, and adapting to change.

Please welcome with a BIG round of applause, Larry Weaver!
